A large crowd of people is seated in a dark, industrial-style venue, possibly a theater or concert hall. The audience is diverse in age and appearance, and they are all looking towards the front of the room. The lighting is dim, with some overhead lights visible. The architecture features exposed concrete beams and pipes. The overall atmosphere is one of a live event or performance.

A man with a shaved head and a goatee, wearing a black button-down shirt and grey trousers, sits in a black office chair. He is positioned in front of a metal shelving unit filled with various items, including boxes of Kraft products (one labeled 'KRAFT KOT'), papers, and other office supplies. To his right, several large cardboard boxes are stacked vertically. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the man's face and the text being the primary light sources.
